

Dear Parent/Carer,

Poet, writer and storyteller, Conrad Burdekin, led a hugely entertaining assembly on Thursday 3rd March to help us celebrate World Book Day. He will be returning on Tuesday 5th April to work with all of our pupils. Conrad is the proud author of five books of poetry for children, with his fifth one (Space Café and other poems) being released in the middle of Lockdown! He tells us that it was a strange time to release a book, but books will be books and they must be allowed to burst out into the real world whenever they feel like it!

We would now like to offer you the opportunity of buying some of Conrad's books. They would make a great present, or indeed a memento of Conrad's visit. Year 3 were particularly excited as they have already studied one of Conrad's poems – My Silly Daddy – which can be found in Conrad's yellow book. If you would like to have a look at some of Conrad's poems before buying, you can see them on his website www.conradburdekin.com and can find him on Facebook at Conrad Burdekin Books. You can also see him performing some of his poems on his Youtube Channel – just search for Conrad Burdekin. Every book bought will be signed by Conrad and will have a personalised message written inside to your child. If you would like to purchase any of the books, please complete and return the order form along with the correct money in an envelope with your child's name and form on to school by Friday 1st April. If you are unable to print the order form please contact the school office by phone or email and we will send one home.

Many thanks!
